

Annual Albuquerque

ANIMAL RIGHTS

Film Festival & Silent Auction

Thursday, July 10, 5:30 p.m., UNM Law School, 1117 Stanford NE, Room 2402, (on the corner of Tucker and Stanford). FREE Parking!

Suggested donation: $5 bucks for UNM staff, students, seniors; $7 bucks for everyone else.
Proceeds to benefit UNM Student Animal Legal Defense Fund

5:30 p.m.

The Meatrix I. The film, a humorous spoof on "The Matrix," takes a look at the gap between our illusions about where food comes from and the reality of industrial meat and dairy production. 4 min.

The Meatrix II. Revolting is the sequel to the award-winning smash hit The Meatrix. 4 min.

The Meatrix II 1/2, takes us to a processing facility, where we learn how we feed our Fast Food Nation. 4 min.

6:00 p.m.

The Acceptable Sin: Obesity and Religion.

Produced and directed by Jack Truman, this film focuses on the direct link between religion and obesity in America, with an emphasis on Animal Rights. 5 min.

Break for Silent Auction

6:25 p.m.

Behind the Mask: The Story of the People who Risk Everything to Save Animals. Directed by Shannon Keith this multi-award winning documentary is about the animal rights activists who break into laboratories and other facilities to provide previously unseen footage of the way animals are used. 75 min.

Break for Silent Auction

7:40 p.m.

Earthlings. Joaquin Phoenix narrates this thought-provoking documentary, exposing mankind's unnecessary and cruel dependence on animals as food, clothing, entertainment, and experimentation. Written and directed by Shaun Monson, this award winning film features an original score by musician and activist Moby.

Silent Auction Winners Announced

Silent Auction in Main Forum

(2) $25 gift certificates from il Vicino

Gift certificates from Winning Coffee

A $200 gift certificate from SACHS tattoos

A $100 gift certificate from SACHS tattoos

A T-Shirt from Herbivore Clothing Co.

(2) T-Shirts from "The Meatrix"

Don't forget to bring cash for the Silent Auction!

Sponsored by UNM-SALDF and VUNM